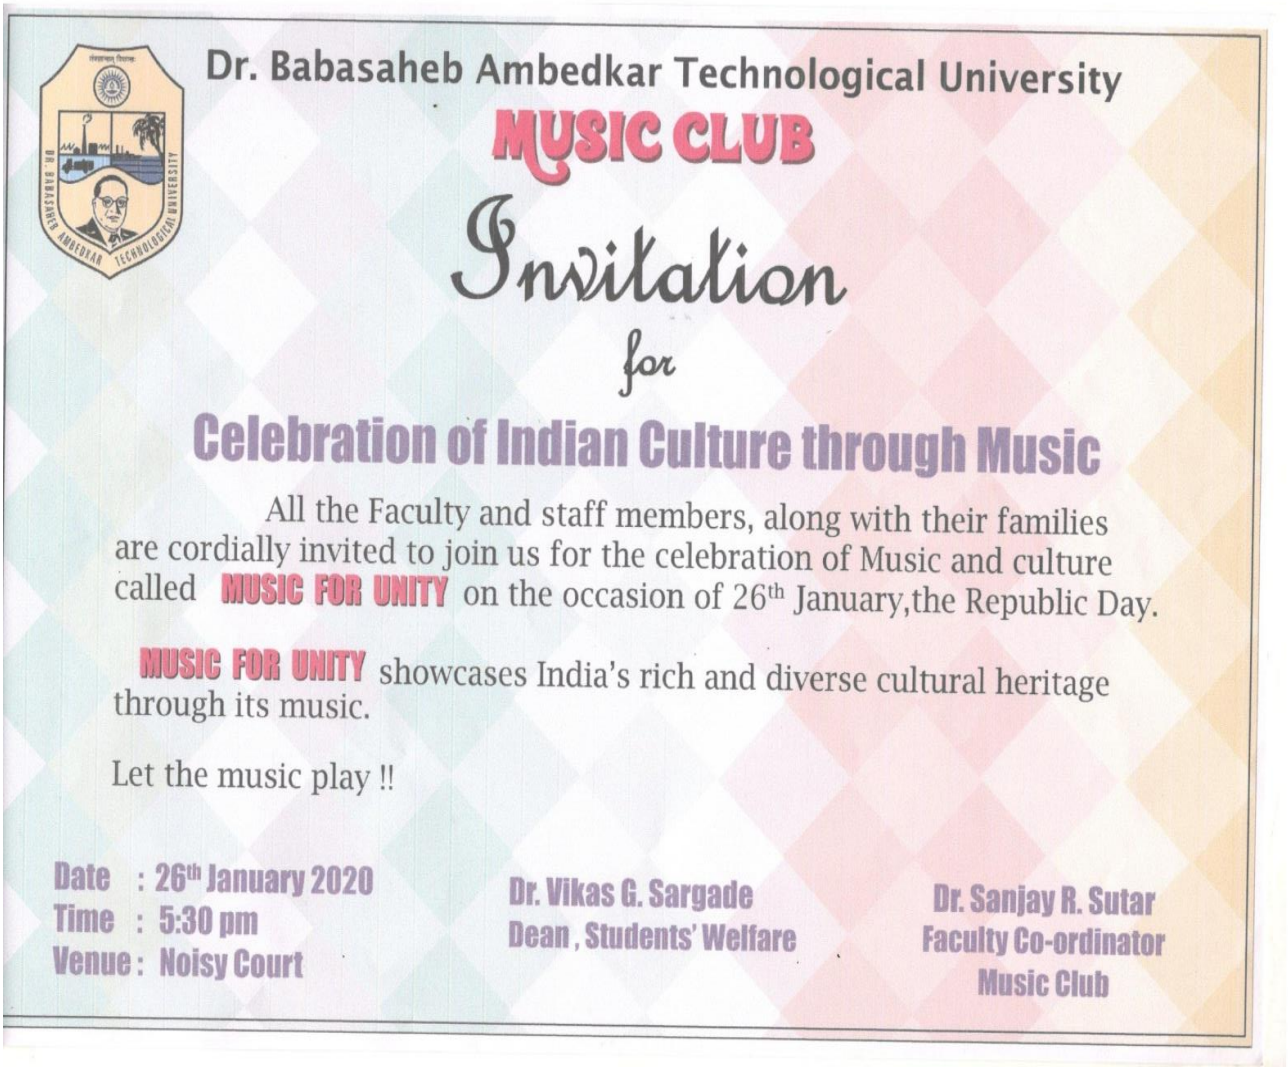
Cultural Programme- Music for Unity

The Music Club of the University organized a cultural programme 'Music for Unity' on the occasion of Republic Day, 26th January, 2020 to showcase India's rich and diverse cultural heritage through music.

It was open to students, staff, faculty and their family members. Hon. Vice-Chancellor graced the programme by sparing his valuable time.


The entries of songs to be played were taken from the students and staff. Singing was also performed by participant students. All attendees enjoyed the programme by going through India's rich and varied culture. It was really a memorable event.
